Roosevelt School District No. 66 was established in Phoenix, Arizona in 1912. The first RSD school was located south of the Phoenix City Center on the corner of what is now 7th Street and Southern. What began as a 15-pupil district has grown into a school district serving more than 7,500 students and 1,200 employees in 18 schools, an early childhood education center and a Neighborhood Technology Resource Center. The Roosevelt School District remains the largest employer in south Phoenix.
